A Tale of the Giant Tombstone in Macaulay's Woods, and the Lucra
Supposed to be buried There.

At the Ontario Historical Society meeting last week at Collingwood, Miss T. Muriel Merrill, of the provincial archivist's office, gave an account of "The Washburn Treasure."

"It may seem like a pirate yarn, and may not amount to much as an historical contribution," said Miss Merrill to the Telegram, "but the story is all true. My father was among those who have searched for the treasure and I have used his notes in this account."

The first settlement of Picton was at an early date about 1785. The original name of the place was Hallowell Bridge, the bridge, a rather poor structure of logs and timber, being built across the stream which drained the marsh into the bay at its head. The village which grew on the west side of the bay, was later known simply as Hallowell. A much smaller village gradually formed upon the east side, and, though touching Hallowell at the head of the bay, which is there very narrow, was kept separate, and was called Picton, after Sir Thomas Picton, of Waterloo fame. They remained this way till 1837, when they were incorporated under the name of Picton.

The most frequently travelled post road, between 1823, was the one to Stone Mills, now Glenora. There was a pathway up Spafford Hill, where now the road is, and a pathway to turns themselves found the money, and would tell no-one. No one has ever been exactly certain what became of the money, so doubtless there will be in time a still further search for it.

2 Aug 1906

Accompanied, in March 1898, by a road.

One of the earliest settlers was Ebenezer Washburn, a native of Rutland, Charlotte county, New York. United Empire Loyalist. Washburn had in 1777 joined Burgoyne. He was taken prisoner by a rebel scouting party and sent from jail to jail. In 1778 he escaped into Canada, where he joined Major Jessup's corps, serving as major. About 1788 he came to Hallowell, where he settled. He was the father of the Hon. Samuel Washburn. He acted as justice of the peace, and was, in 1816, town clerk. His son, Simeon, was town clerk in 1815, and again in 1823. Simeon was also at one time a member of the house of assembly. The Washburns did a large rafting business, and had a store—dry goods, e. c., which was on the corner of Main or High street, at the top of the Big Hill. The store was kept by Paul Washburn, Simeon's son.

In September, or October, 1823, Simeon Washburn received from Montreal about $2,000 in payment for lumber and staves. The money was in gold, silver and bills, the silver amounting to $400 or more, a whole bag full.

On Sunday the Washburns went to meeting, leaving the children at home with Mrs. Beckus and Mrs. Watson, of Bloomfield. Paul Washburn was not in town at the time. Joe Smith, a ditch-turner, who lived on the opposite side of the creek from Hovelston's, renting his place from the Fergusonsons, had been hanging around the store for some time at night, coming in with the hired men and when the Washburns had gone to meeting. He came over again. He got one of the girls to go up stairs and play with the kitten, and set the others to washing cooking eggs. Then he took the trunk containing the money into the back house. His movements after that were not known, but he and the money disappeared.

It is supposed that he had been hanging around simply to get the "lay of the land," and Simeon Washburn afterwards remembered that it was he who had helped him up with the trunk when it came. Old Stewart Wilson thought that Smith was the Mormon leader, while others said he belonged to a band of thieves known as the Markham Gang, of whom one Townsend was a notorious member. Nothing more was heard of the money until about a year later, when the following letter was received (original spelling, etc.):

I am a poor, condemned criminal, but in penitence I acknowledge my fault, and feel determined for to do no more and lead a different life from what I ever did before God being my helper I feel it to be my duty to make restitution to all those that I ever wronged, and pray for their forgiveness. I never wronged you, but I know who did and as far as in me lies I will make you restitution. Now sir, at the time you lost your money I was in York jail. But last January I received a letter from the man that took your money, he being an acquaintance of mine, and he wrote to me that he was in jail and did expect to go to states prison.

He wrote to me and said that he had left all the silver that he took from you deposited not far from your place he gave me the description of the place and desired for me to go and see if I could find it. I never made search for it yet and he never told me what the place was. I gave the description to you and told you of me and it will not be long before for you to go with me to the marsh above the bridge where I want to ware a small house and to farm the est, he said I must come with cleering, he did not say whether the cleering was before I came to the small stream or no.

Mr. E. J. Chard,
c/o The United Empire Loyalists'
Association of Canada,
Dominion Headquarters,
23 Prince Arthur Avenue,
Toronto, Ontario.
M5R 1B2

Dear Mr. Chard:

Thank you very much for your offer of assistance in my attempt to determine whether or not I am, in fact, descended from James Adams, U.E.. The information which I have discovered so far is as follows.

Robert Clifford, of Burleigh Township, was my gg-grandfather. In "The History of the County of Peterborough, Ontario; ...." (U of T Rare Books section, catalogue number D-10 3838), a biographical sketch of Robert Clifford states that he was "... born in the Township of Hope, Durham County, in 1827. His mother was a daughter of Capt. James Adams. The family are of English descent, his parents having emigrated from Woolwich. His father was for many years employed as a ship's carpenter in the Government dockyards. His grandfather, Capt. James Adams, owned at one time a large portion of land where the city of Kingston is now built, which he drew for his military services. He held a commission in the British Army and fought in the war of 1812. Mr. Clifford's father resided in Kingston for a long time and subsequently moved to the Township of Hope, where he remained for four years and then moved to the Township of Smith, on Concession 13, on the bank of Chemong Lake, where he cleared a farm and resided for 28 years. ... (Robert Clifford) has two brothers in Peterborough and is the fifth of a family of nine children. He is a Conservative and a member of the Presbyterian Church."

This was published in 1884. I believe it has many accuracies. However, I have not yet been able to prove that James Adams the g-father is the same person as James Adams the Loyalist. Yet there is circumstantial evidence that this is the case.

On January 14, 1830, one Elizabeth Clifford petitioned for a grant of land (see Ontario Archives, microfilm reel C-1725, C Bundle 15, Petition No. 43). In her petition, Elizabeth Clifford ~~stated~~ stated that she "... is the daughter of the late James Adams of the Town of Kingston in + Midland District, an U.E. Loyalist -- ". In the same document, "Mr Walter Boswell and Thomas Ward clerk of the peace do testify that Elizabeth Clifford -- wife of Thomas Clifford-- and daughter of the late James Adams esq (this) Town of Kingston, an U.E. Loyalist -- is recognized by the magistr to be the daughter of the said James Adams who retained his Loyalty during the late War and that the said Thomas Clifford did his duty in defence of the Province during the late War." As part of the same petition, on February 22, 1830, "Elizabeth Clifford, wife of Thomas Clifford of the township of Hope in the said district yeoman, maketh oath and saith that she is the person she describes herself to be in the foregoing Petition, that she has attained the full age of twenty one years, and has never received any Land or order for Land from the Crown." This declaration was "Sworn before me at Port Hope this 22<sup>d</sup> of February 1830 (signature) J. McGillivray J.P."

The outside of the petition has written on it "In Council 16 March 1830 --- Recommended --- (signature) --- (small word) ---, Order passed 20th March 1830.", and, below this "The name of James Adams of Kingston does not appear in the U.E. Listing --- Queri - has James Adams constantly resided in Kingston or elsewhere. Answer - resided in Edwardsburgh W.". This is then signed by J. Baley, Inspter Gen'l.

As noted by W.D. Reid, in his famous listing of U.E. Loyalists, other persons - Maria Adams, Eleanor (Adams) Sage, Mary Ann (Adams) Bateson, William Adams, and Henry Adams - also received grants of land on the strength of their claims that they were sons and daughters of James Adams, U.E.. I have read the petitions in question, and find no further information concerning Elizabeth.

In "A List of loyalists in the Eastern District giving names, townships and lot numbers", of 1796, appears the name "James Adams" in a section apparently referring to Edwardsburgh Twp. In the "Executive Listing" of U.E. Loyalists appears the name "James Adams" and a ditto mark indicating he is of Edwardsburgh Twp. In the "Old U.E. List", as published in "The Centennial of . . . Loyalists: 1784-1884", appears the name "Adams, James", "E. District", "Soldier, K. Rangers, S.G., 200 acres Land Board Adolphustown, 1794". I conclude that at least there was a James Adams who was a Loyalist, and that at one time he resided in Edwardsburgh Twp.

The censuses of Edwardsburgh Township, of Aug. 11, 1800, and April 2, 1801, contain the name of James Adams, and the information that his family comprised 1 man, 1 woman, 2 boys, and 2 girls. The name of James Adams does not appear in the E-burgh censuses of 1802, 1803, 1809, 1817, 1819, 1820, or 1821.

In "The Parish Register of Kingston Upper Canada 1785-1811", by A. H. Young, 1921, James Adems (also Adams) and Elizabeth Adems (also Adams) are listed as the parents of baptized children named Ann (1801), Mary Ann (1804), Henry (1807), Eleanor (1809), Anna Maria (1811). The funeral of one James Adems is noted (1802).

The assessment rolls of Hope Township show that Thomas Clifford resided on part of Lot 1, Con. 7, in 1824 - 1821, inclusive, but not in 1832-1847 inclusive. In 1827, his family is not listed: in 1828 his family has increased ~~from~~ by one male under 16, above the number listed in 1826. Is it possible that this child is my Robert Clifford?

The assessment and census rolls of Smith Township show that Thomas Clifford resided there in 1839, 1840, and 1841, on Lot 25, Con. 14, Lots 25 and 27, Con. 13, and Lot 30, Con. 12. The years 1830-1838 are missing in the assessment rolls, as are the years 1826-1838 in the census. It is interesting that James Sage, the husband of Eleanor Adams, daughter of James Adams, U.E., resided in Smith Twp in 1829, and 1839-1840.

The family of Thomas Clifford is not listed in the censuses of 1842, 1851, 1861, or 1871. However, no other Cliffords are listed in Smith Twp at this period. Furthermore, in the Peterborough County Marriage Register, Vol. I, 1843-1858, is listed the marriage of my gg-parents Robert Clifford and Margaret Swinton: both are called residents of Smith Twp.

I have been through the Abstract Index to land transactions for Smith Twp, and find the names of Thomas Clifford and Elizabeth Clifford as early as 1833 and 1834. Not until 1848 does Thomas Clifford deal with John Clifford, Thos Geo Clifford, Alex McEwan (who married Mary Ann Clifford in 1849), and William Clifford. I believe I can identify some of these people in other censuses, and marriage records, and am satisfied that Thos Geo Clifford is a different person from Thomas Clifford Senr, of the same land transaction; that Mary Ann Clifford and Alex McEwan were young enough for her to be a generation younger than Thomas Clifford; that the John Clifford of Otonabee Twp is in that younger generation also.

What I greatly lack is definite proof that my gg-grandfather, Robert Clifford, is the son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Adams) Clifford.

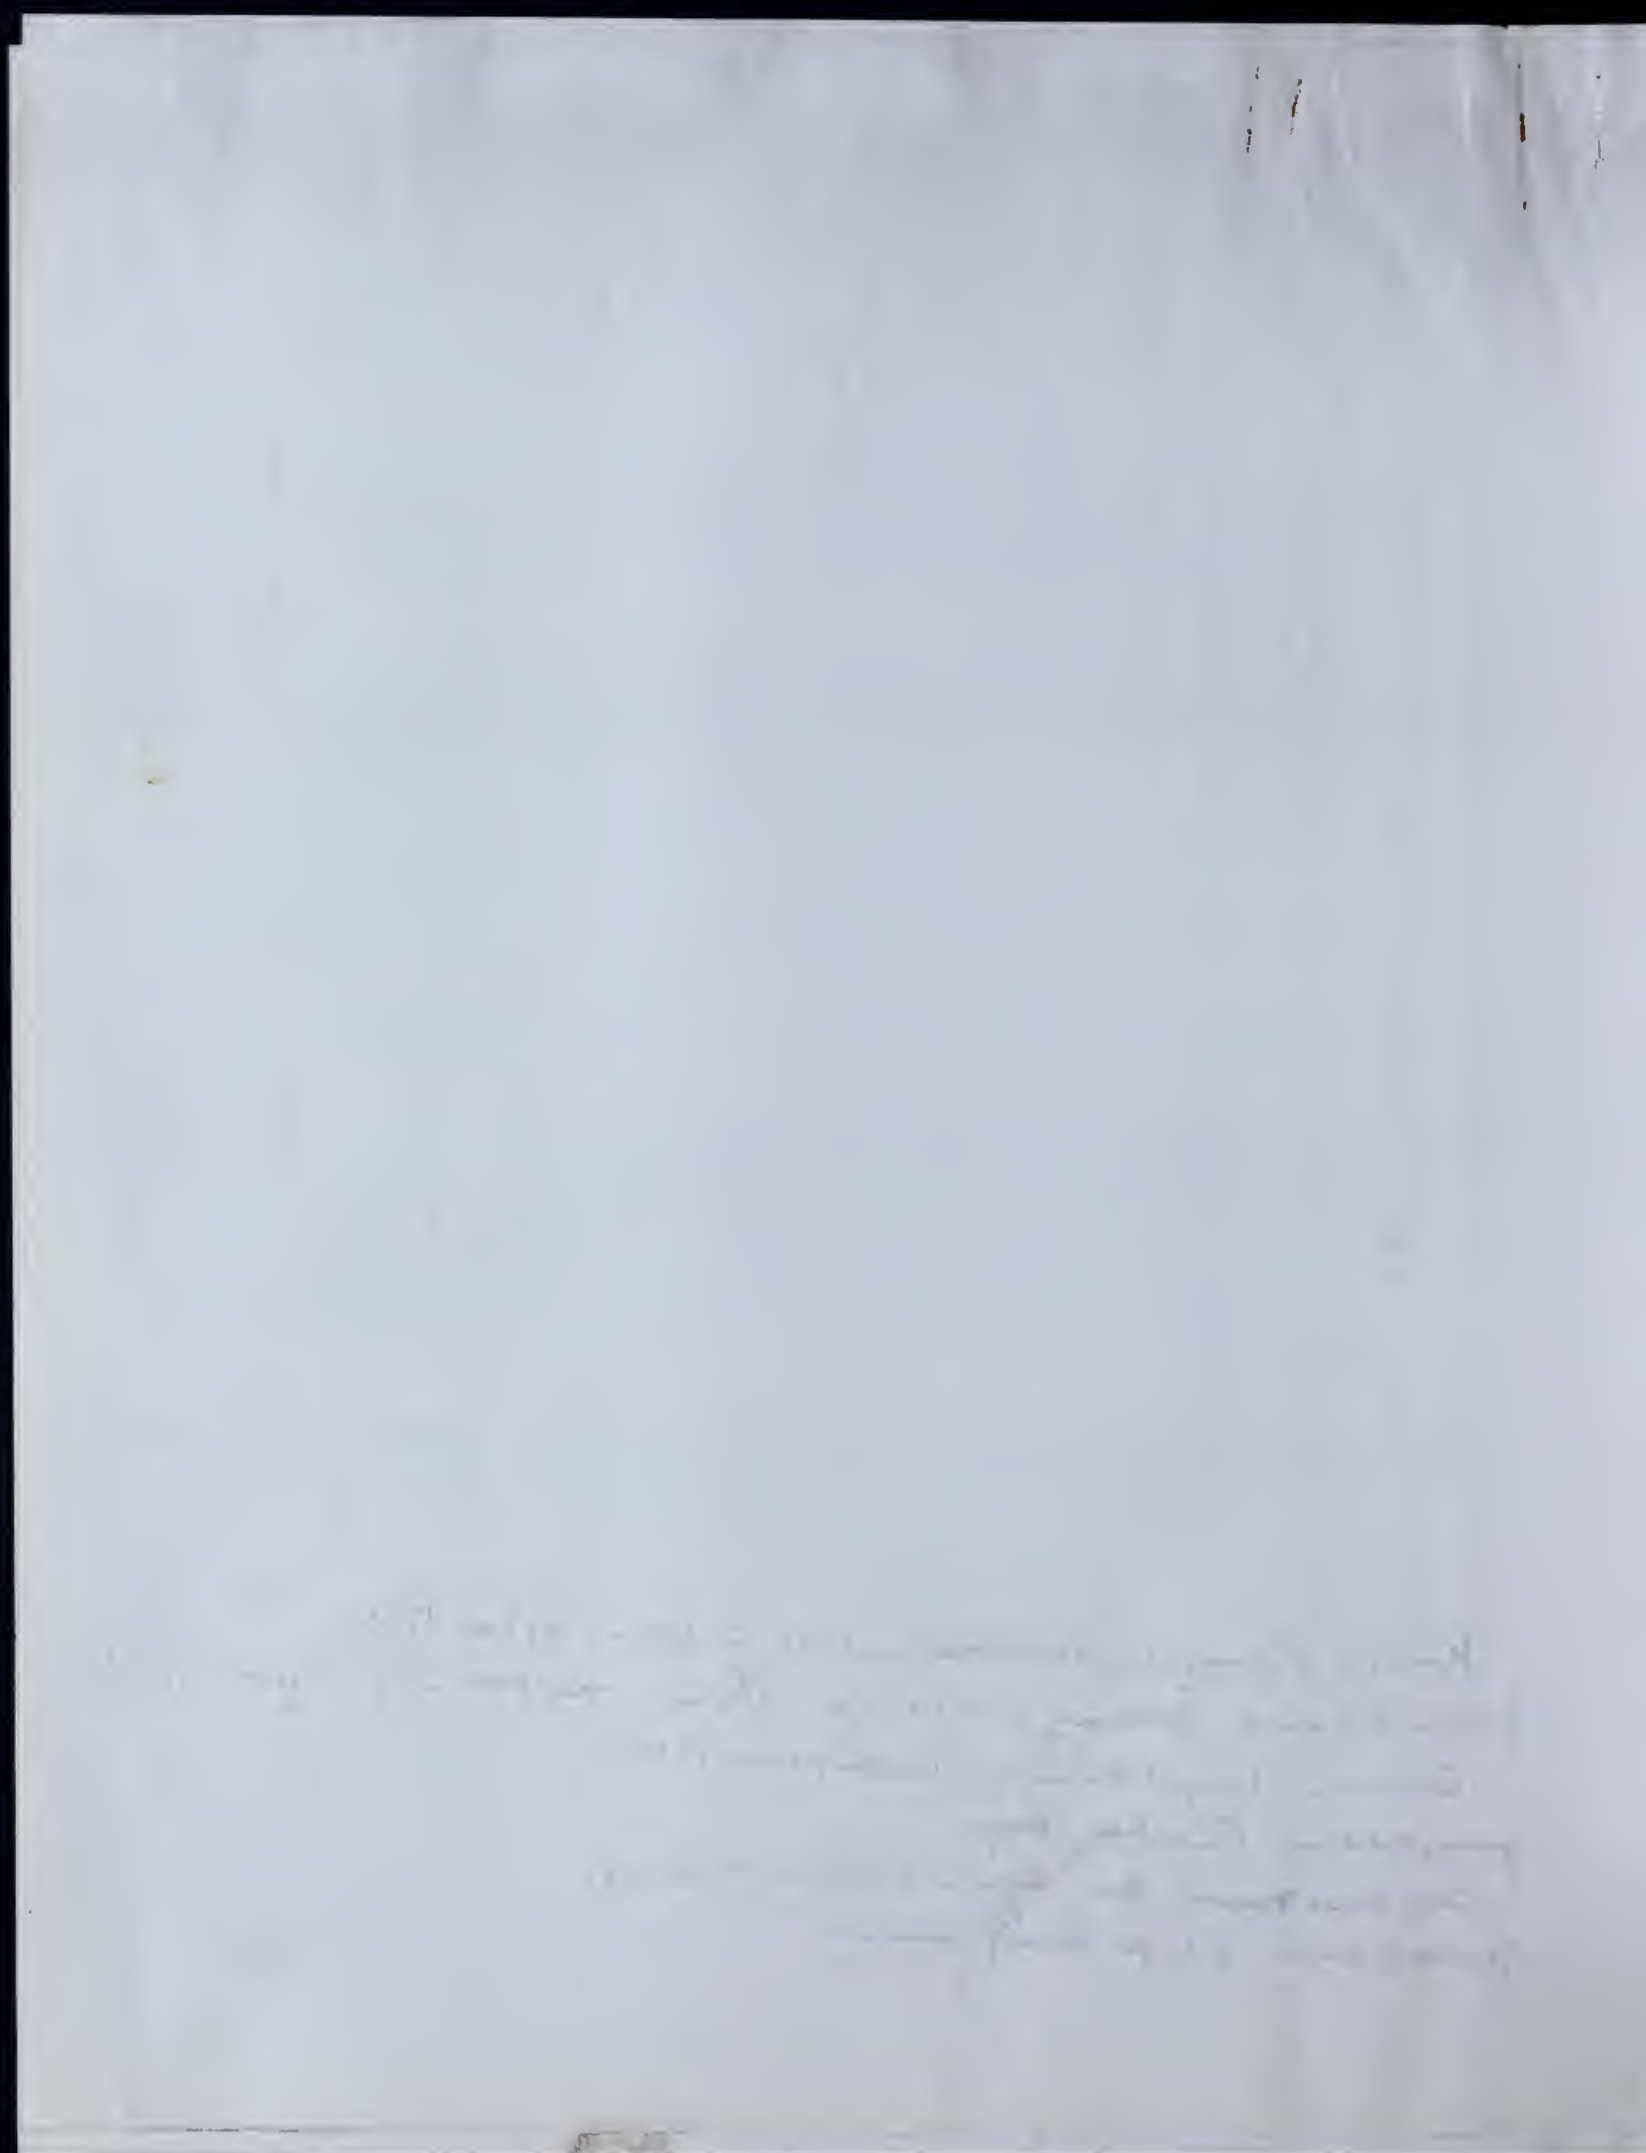

I plan to investigate church records as soon as possible; however, although Robert Clifford and Margaret Swinton (his wife, my gg-grandmother) were Presbyterian, and were married by "Geo Goodson, ~~Presby~~ Wesleyan Minister, Peterborough", the family of Thomas Clifford was shown in the late 1830's as having 1 Methodist and 9 Baptists. It seems to me that the reason Robert Clifford was noted for not talking about his family may have been that the family divided over religious differences, and not that he left home at an early age (which is the family legend).

If I had been able to prove anything, I could have organized my arguments much more concisely. Begging your patience, I will appreciate very much any suggestions you can make concerning the unravelling of the many mysteries contained herein.

Thanking you very much, I am

Dear Sir:

Your name and address has been given to me by Mr Ralph G. Adams of this city.

I understand that you are interested in United Empire Loyalist history and I am a member of both The Ontario Historical and The Ontario Genealogical Societies.

One of my charitable hobbies during the past few years has been doing research and proposing the erection of Provincial plaques.

In this connection I am investigating the claim of an Adams family who believe that they are United Empire Loyalists.

Richard Saxton Adams (1734-1810) moved from Vermont to Leeds County, Upper Canada about 1798. After the War of 1812-1814 his son, Joshua Adams (1782-1865), moved from Leeds County to Lanark County, Upper Canada.

Would you please advise me if you know of any place that I could get documentary proof that either Richard Saxton Adams or Joshua Adams were United Empire Loyalists.

It is possible that you may have already seen one or both of these names on a list of south-eastern Ontario Loyalists.

The Henry Adams Branch

In 1609 Henry Adams, of the village of Barton St. David, on the River Carey, in Somersetshire, England, married Edith Squire who lived in the nearby village of Charlton Mackerell. They had one daughter and eight sons, the youngest of whom was born in 1626 while they still lived in England.

Henry took his family to Boston, Massachusetts and on being granted a tract of land at Mount Holliston, (later known as Braintree) settled there. Here Henry Adams died and was buried on October 8 1646.

Henry's youngest son, Joseph I married Abigail Baxter on Nov. 26, 1650. They had twelve children. The father died on Dec. 6, 1694.

The second child of the first Joseph was Joseph II, born Dec. 24 1654.

Joseph I's third child, John, was the grandfather of Samuel who played an important part in the events which helped to lead to the American Revolution.

Joseph II married three times, and in all, had eleven children. As a second wife he chose Hannah Bass who was a granddaughter on one side, of Eleon Samuel Bass, and on the other of, John and Priscilla Alden.

Joseph II educated his eldest son, Joseph III, at Harvard in order that he might become a clergyman.

Joseph II's second son John I was born Jan 28, 1691. He married Susannah Boylston, had three children and died May 25 1760, three years before his father, who died Feb 12, 1763.

The eldest son of John I was also named John (II). He was born Oct 19, 1735. After being educated at Harvard he eventually became a historian, a diplomat of ability and finally the second president of the United States.

Note: It had, if any was the relationship between Henry and Robert Adams.

Robert Adams, born in England in 1602, first came to Ipswich, Mass. Bay Colony in 1635, bringing his wife, Eleanor (Wilmot?) and two children. He was a tailor by trade. He resided in Salem, Mass., in 1638-9, then removed to Newbury in 1640, where he acquired a large farm. He died 12 Oct., 1682, aged 81 years. His will was dated at Newbury 7 March, 1680-1, and probated 27 Nov., 1682.

His wife, Eleanor, died 12 June, 1677, and he married, second, 6 Feb., 1678, Sarah (Glover) Short, widow of Henry Short. She died at Newbury 24 Oct., 1697. It is said that Robert Adams came from Devonshire, England, and that his parents were Robert Adams and Elizabeth Sharlon, or Sharland. It is also thought that he was a cousin of Henry Adams of Braintree (afterwards Quincy, Mass.), ancestor of John and John Quincy Adams.

The name of Adams is said to have originated in the Welsh Ap Adam.

His children were,

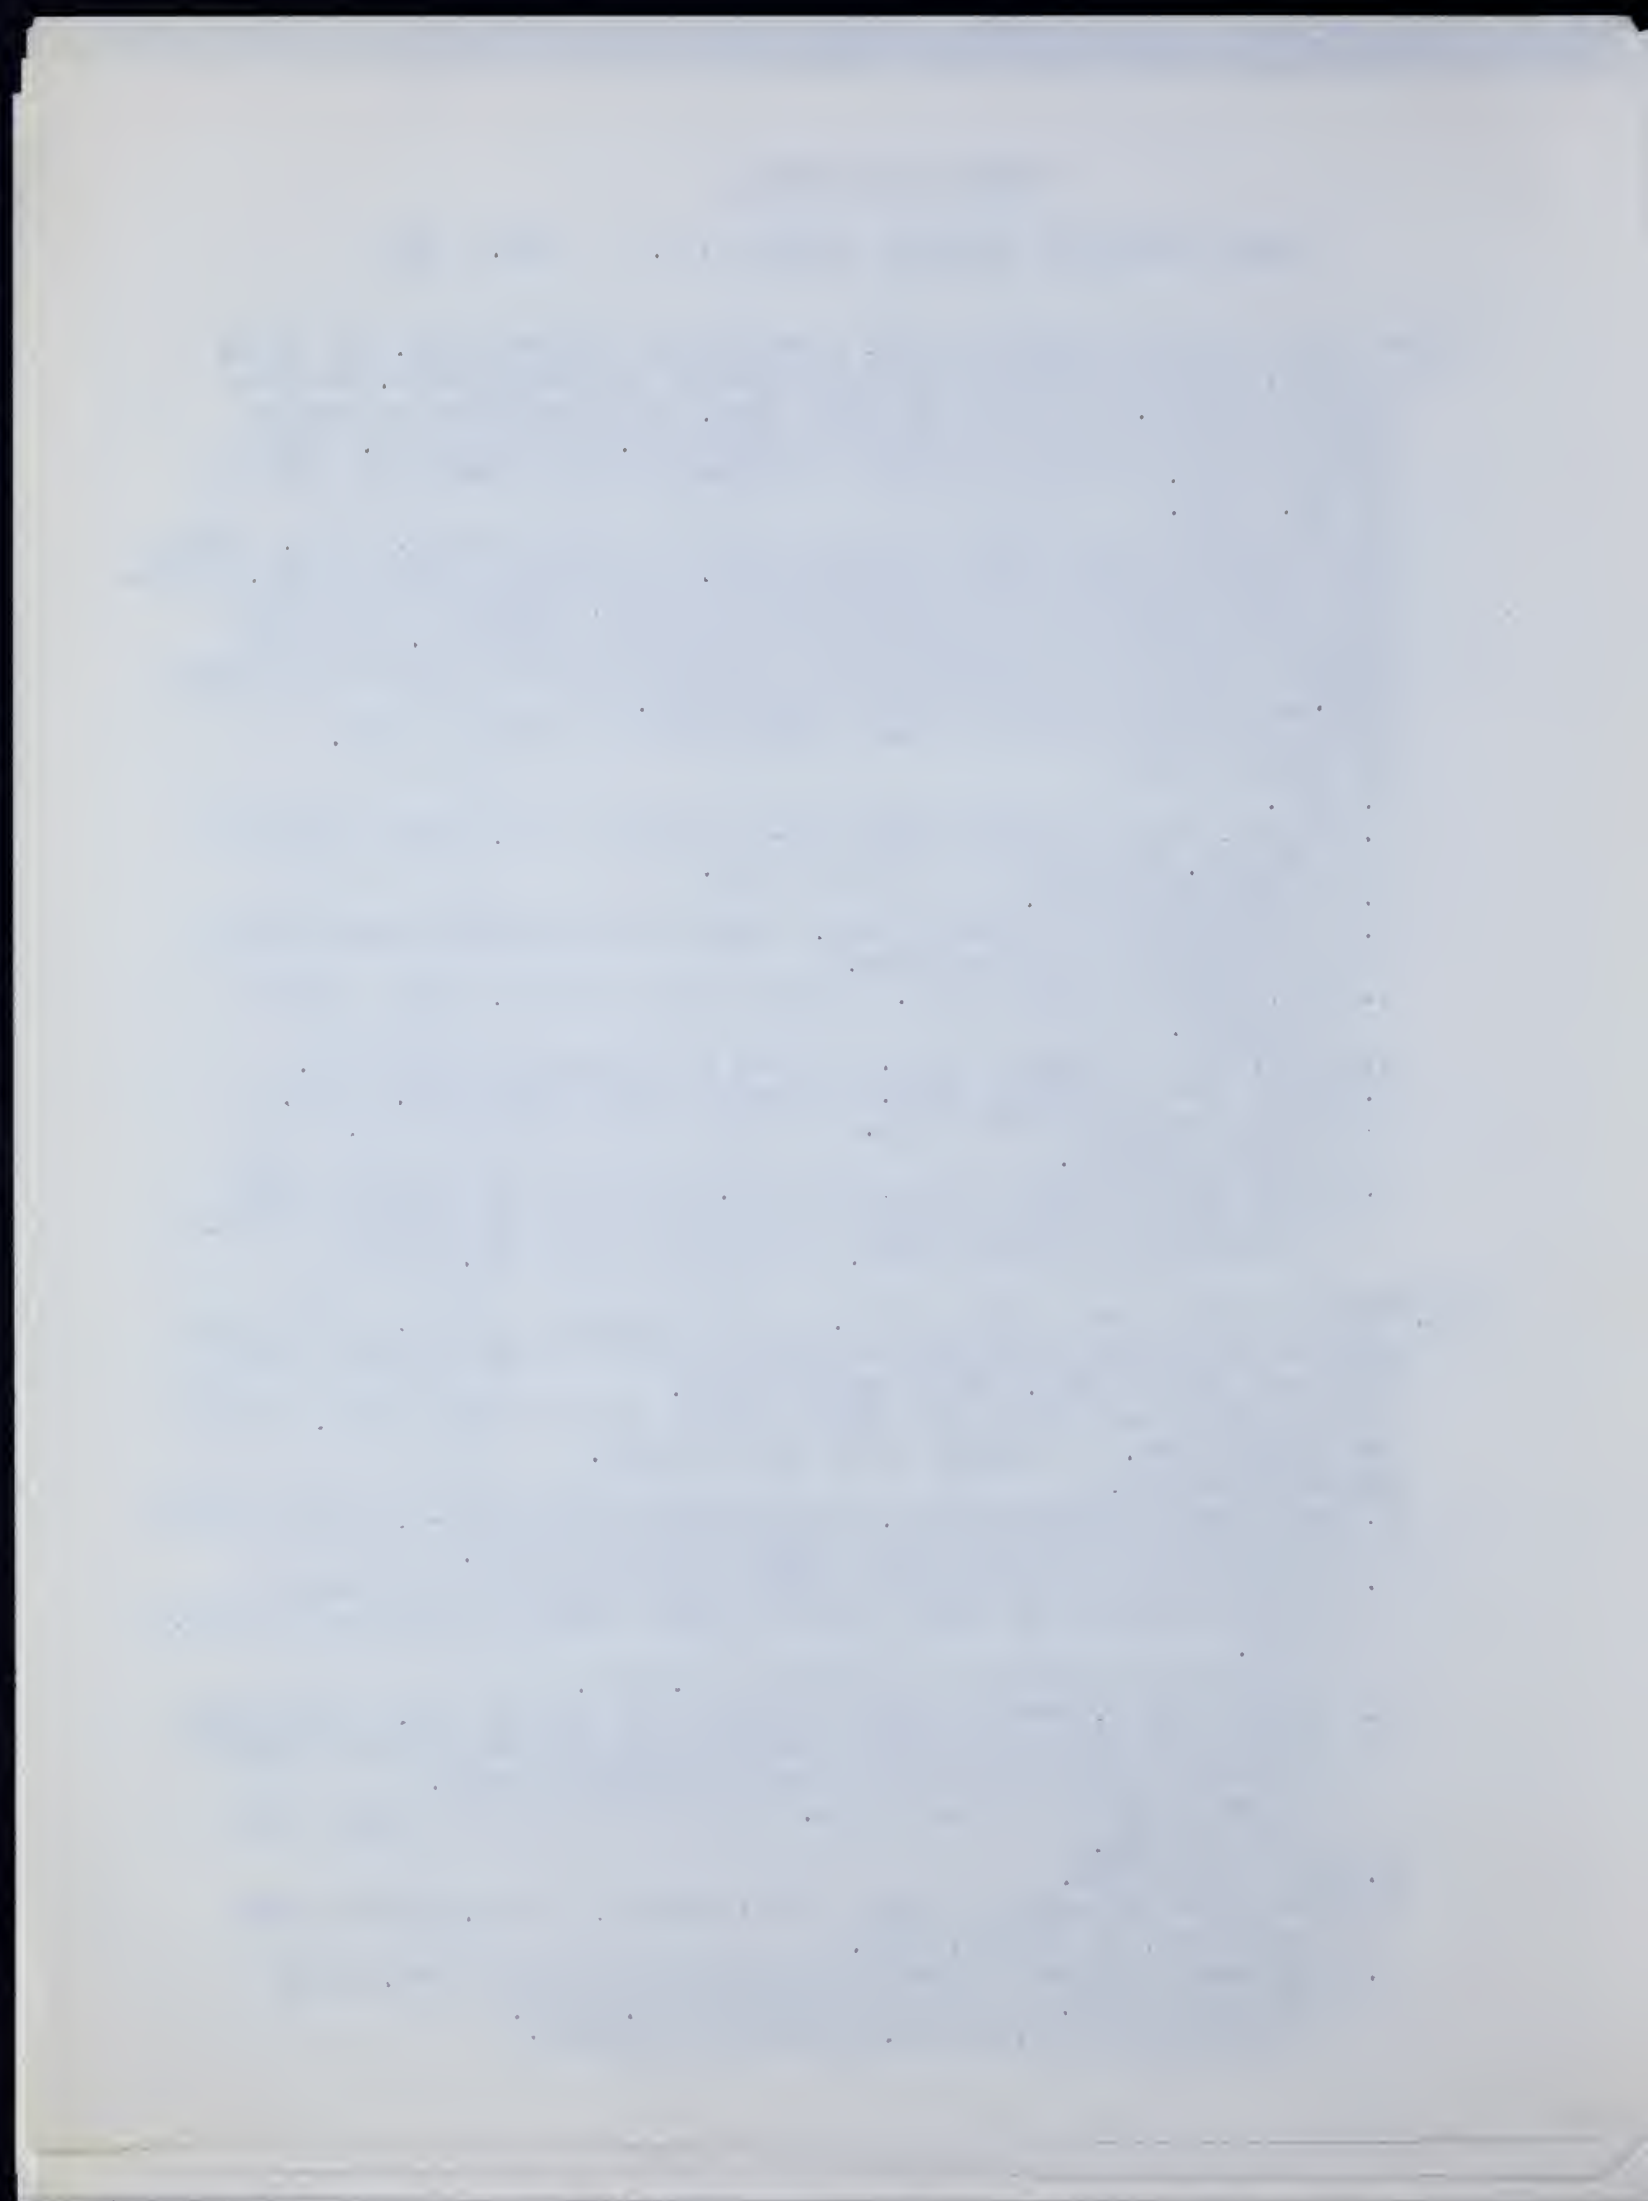

1. John.
2. Johanna, born in England about 1633-4; married 4 Jan., 1654, Launcelot Granger. They lived at Suffield, Conn.
3. ABRAHAM (see below).
4. Elizabeth, born in Newbury, Mass., about 1641-2; married Edward Phelps, and removed to Andover, Mass.
5. Mary, born in Newbury, Mass., 1643-5; married 15 Nov., 1660, Jeremiah Goodrich.
6. Isaac, born in Newbury, Mass., 1647-8; died unmarried after 1680.
7. Jacob, born in Newbury, Mass., 23 April, 1649; died 12 Aug., 1649.
8. Hannah, born in Newbury, Mass., 25 June, 1650; married 10 Feb., 1682, William Wareham.
9. Jacob, born in Newbury, Mass., 13 Sept., 1651; married 7 April, 1682, Anna Allen (Ellen?), daughter of Nicholas Allen, of Dorchester, Mass. He removed to Suffield (Conn.), where he died in Nov., 1717.

Sgt. ABRAHAM ADAMS, born in Salem, Mass., in 1639; married, 10 Nov., 1670, Mary, daughter of Richard PEFTENGILL and Joanna INGERSOLL. Mary was born 6 July, 1652, and died 19 Sept., 1705, aged 53 years.

He was corporal of militia from 1685 to 1693, and sergeant in 1703. He died at Newbury, Mass., in August, 1714, aged 75 years.

His children were,

1. Mary, born at Newbury 16 Jan., 1672; married, about 1694-5, George Thurlow (or Thorley), son of Thomas & Judith (March) Thurlow.
2. Robert, born in Newbury 12 May, 1674; married August, 1695, Rebecca Knight, daughter of John & Rebecca (Noyes) Knight, who was born 27 Apr., 1674. They lived at Newbury, near Newburyport, Mass.
3. Captain Abraham, born at Newbury 2 May, 1676; married, Dec., 1703, Anne, daughter of William and Anne (Sewall) Longfellow, ancestors of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and niece of Judge Samuel Sewall. He was a sailor and sea-captain, and died at Hyfield 8 April, 1763, aged 86 years.
4. ISAAC (see below).
5. Sarah, born at Newbury 15 April, 1681; married, 28 Jan., 1714-5, John Hutchinson, of Andover, Mass.
6. John, born at Newbury 7 March, 1684; married, first, 22 Jan., 1707, Elizabeth Noyes. She died childless 23 Dec., 1708. He married, second, 17 Nov., 1713, Sarah Pearson.

John Adams was a farmer at Rowley (now Georgetown), Mass.

7. Dr. Matthew, born at Newbury 25 May, 1686; married, 4 April, 1707, Sarah Knight, probably daughter of John and Rebecca (Noyes) Knight. She was born 25 Feb., 1679, and died 29 Oct., 1778.
8. Israel, born at Newbury 25 Dec., 1688; married, 15 Nov., 1714, Rebecca Atkinson. He died at Waltham, Mass., 12 Dec., 1714, childless.
9. Dorothy, born at Newbury 25 Oct., 1691; she was unmarried in 1715.
10. Richard, born at Newbury 22 Nov., 1693; married, 12 Dec., 1717, Susanna Pike, probably daughter of John and Lydia (Little) Pike, who was born 3 April, 1697, and died 17 Oct., 1754.

His will was dated 2 Aug., 1770, and probated 2 Nov., 1778.

ISAAC ADAMS (see above), born at Newbury, 26 Feb., 1678-9; married (published 24 Feb., 1707) Hannah SPOFFORD, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Burpee) Spofford, of Rowley, Mass. She was born 12 Feb., 1684, and died in Boxford 3 Sept., 1775, aged 96 years.

Isaac was a weaver, later a farmer, and lived and died in Rowley. His will was dated 24 Jan., 1737, and probated 27 March, 1738.

His children were,

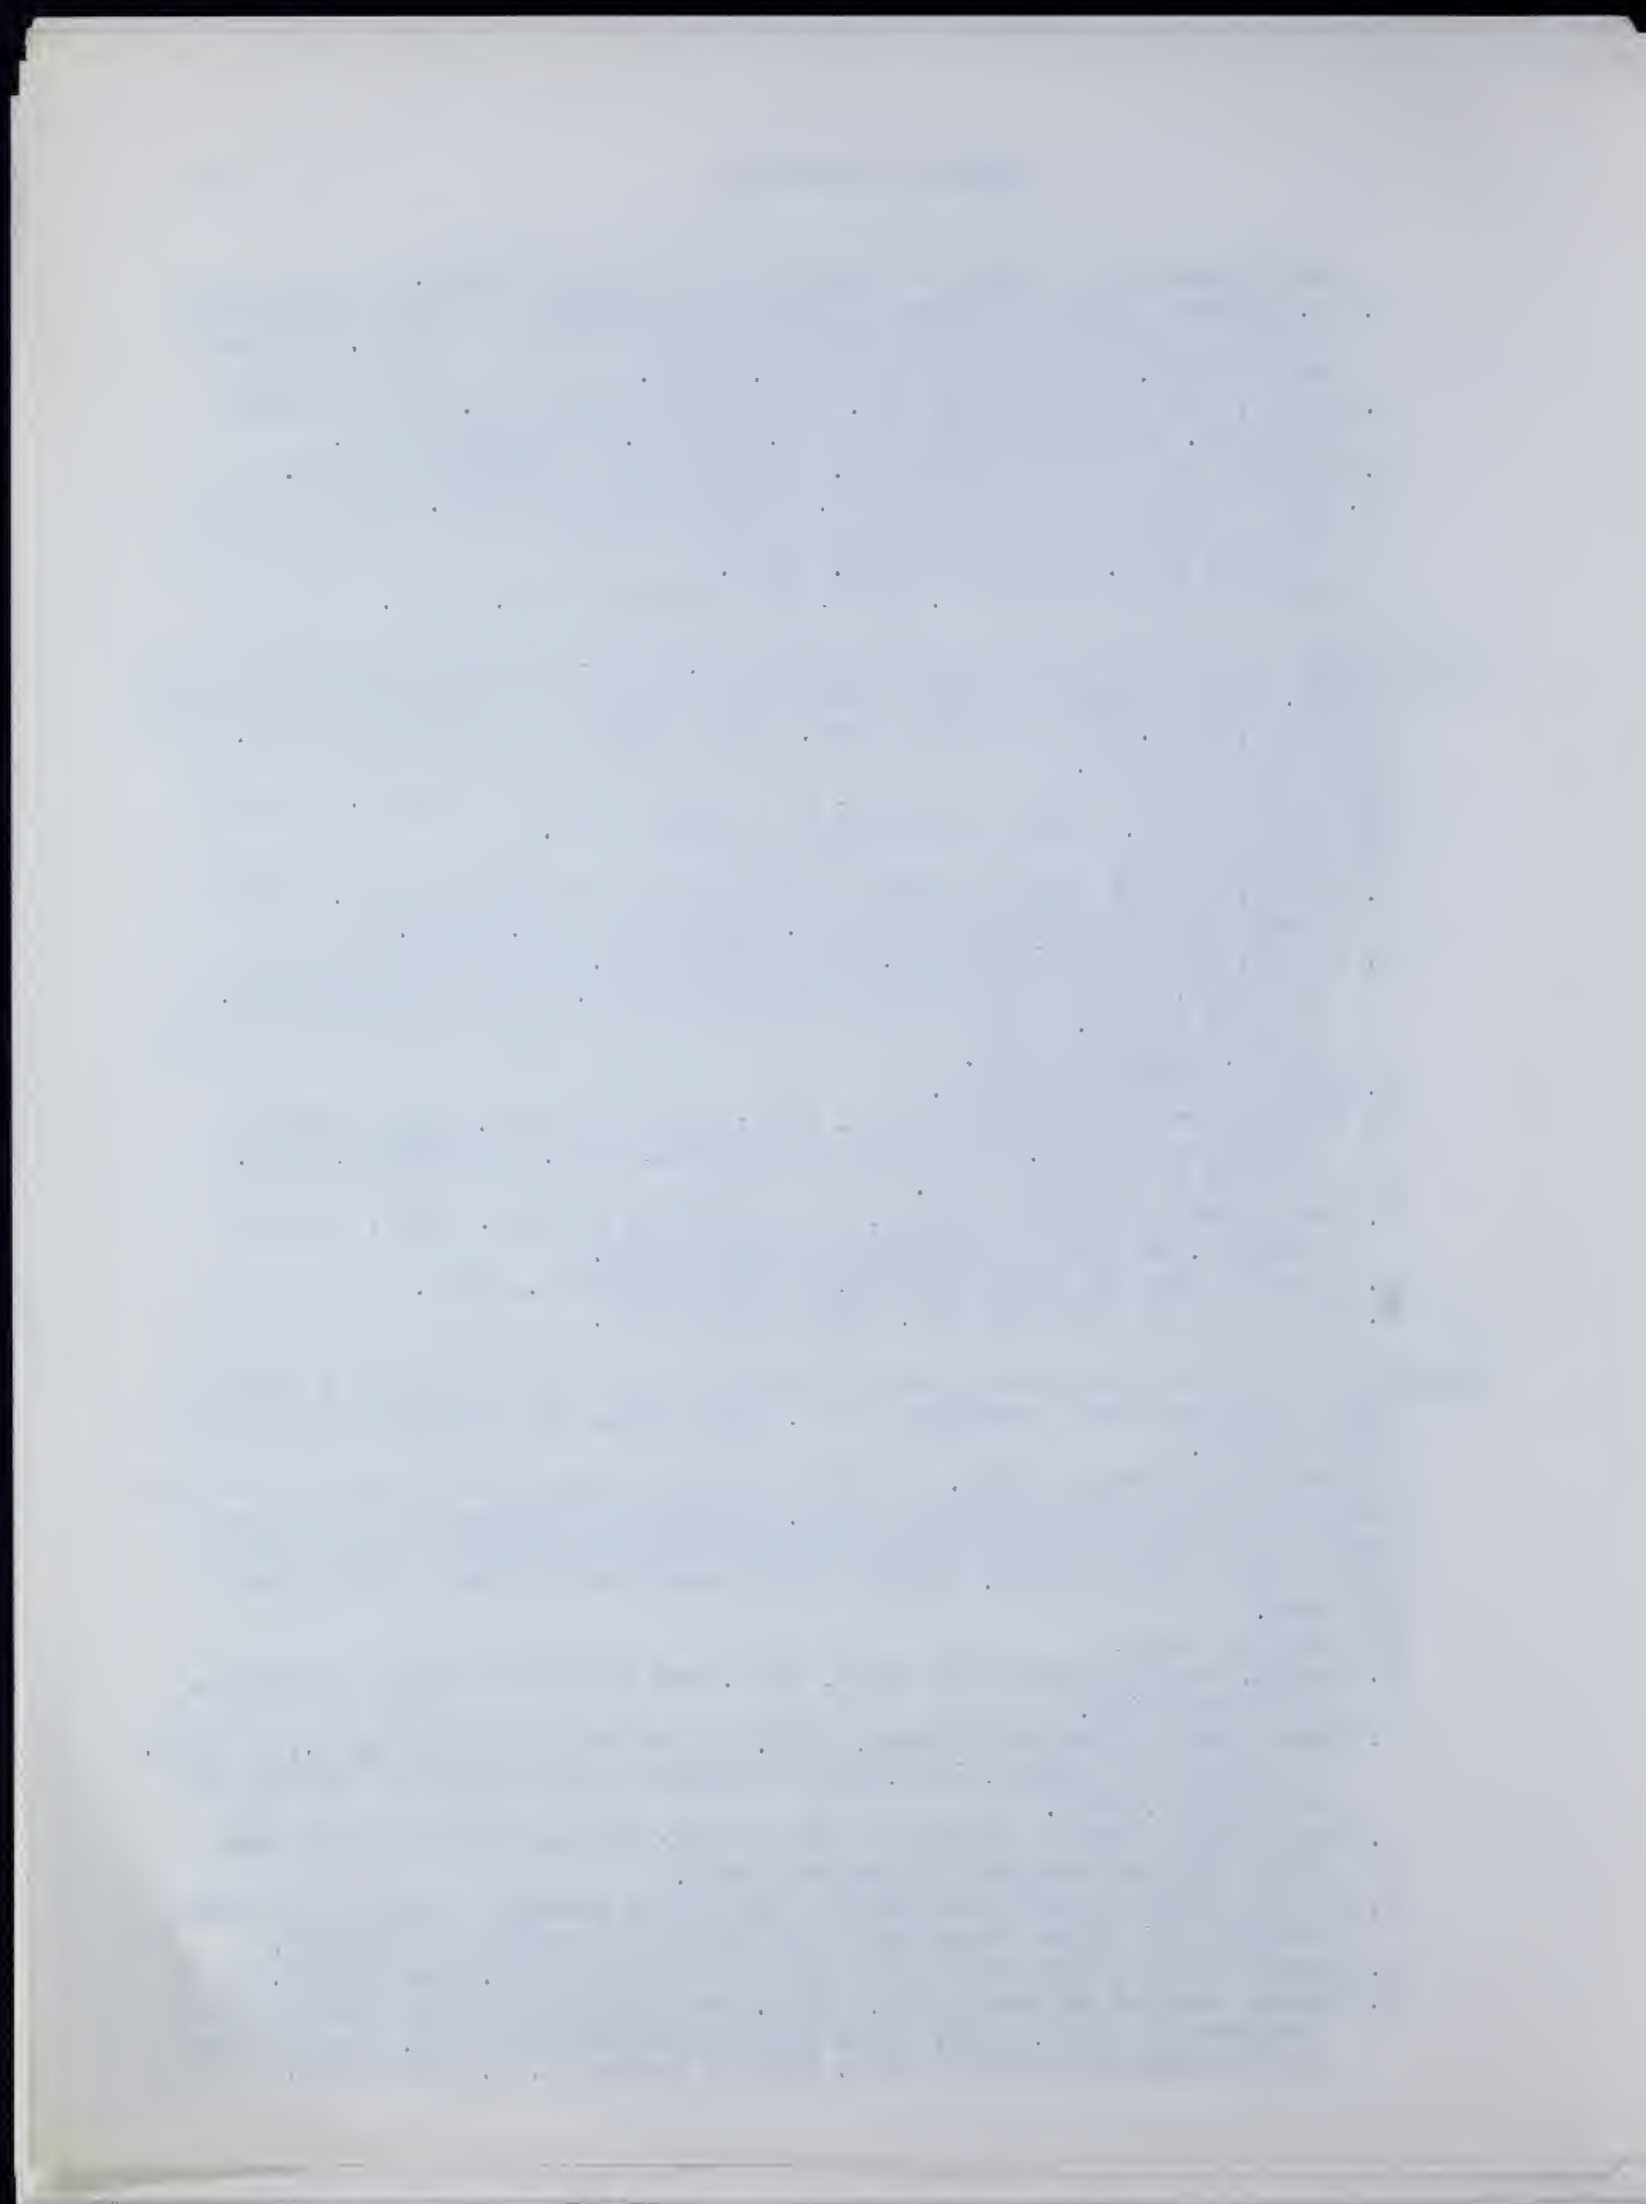

1. Hannah, born at Rowley 15 June, 1709; married (probably 15 Jan., 1731) David Burbank, of Bradford, Mass. She died 20 Aug., 1744.
2. Samuel, born at Rowley 9 Feb. (baptized 18 Feb.), 1710-1; married in Bradford, 28 June, 1732, Mary (Sarah) Burbank. He resided at Rowley. He died 13 Dec., 1736, and his widow married, second (published 4 Jan., 1738), Benjamin Scott.
3. Captain ISAAC (see below).
4. Israel, born at Rowley 25 April, 1716; married 16 Oct., 1740, Deborah Searle, of Rowley. She died at Georgetown, Mass., in October, 1789. He died in January, 1719.
5. David, born in Rowley 15 June, 1720; married, 29 Sept., 1742, Hannah Jackson. He died of consumption 13 May, 1751.
6. Abigail, born in Rowley 28 June, 1722; died 24 Nov., 1737.
7. Mary, born at Rowley 12 Oct., 1724; died young.

Captain ISAAC ADAMS (see above), born in Rowley 25 May, 1713; married, 1 April, 1743, Mary (or Mercy), daughter of Dr. David Wood, who was born in 1720, and died in 1794.

He settled in Boxford, Mass., in 1738; was commissioned as Captain of the 2nd Company of Militia of Boxford, 1 Sept., 1762; was Selectman for 14 years; representative for the town in the General Court in 1783 and the three following years, also in 1778. He died on his home farm 20 March, 1797, aged 83 years.

His children were,

1. Darius, born in Boxford 29 April, 1744. Was a soldier in the Revolution. Died unmarried.

Dr. D. Burleigh -

I am writing to you in hopes of some help on my husband's background.

His name is Gavin Adams he has eight (including him) & seven sisters. His father name was George Samuel Adams Born on March 28/1881 in Huntingdon township. His mother ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> Mary Elizabeth Wannamaker Aug 14/1886 she is a U.S.

George Samuel Adams had 8 brothers
George Samuel Adams father name was Samuel Delvester Faulkner Adams
born in Feb 20 1834.

I know this is not very much to go on but at this time it is all I have. This matter is very urgent what I want to know is how far back you can trace the Adams family. My husband says he believes at sometime or an other they came from the U.S.A.

But as I say we have no records from 1834. Could you give us the information from 1834 back as far as possible.

I will close awaiting your reply
